

Blue: teach others

Green: confident

Amber: getting there

Red: help needed

Year 7 – Philosophy and Ethics in the Ancient World.

Pre-Assessment
Ethics and Philosophy in everyday life. How we think things through.

Literacy:
Understanding key terms for this unit.

Civilisations: How asking bigger questions made stronger civilisations. Evidence of big questions in the ancient world.

Group Activity
Constitutions – Ideal Civilisations:
Literacy: Describing values.

Ethics in Ancient Egypt:
What can we learn from the Papyrus of Ani?

End of Unit Assessment.
Teacher assessed and PINS.

Ethics in the Roman Republic

Patricians, Plebs and Slaves.

Oracy – Debating Equality in the Roman Republic.
Writing to Persuade.

Midway extended writing.
PEER ASSESSED

What can we learn from Ancient Myth?
Gods, Monsters, Odysseus and Moral Dilemmas

Literacy – finding meaning using context (literature skills)

Ancient Memes: “Be More Dog!”
Ancient Greece:
Diogenes the Cynic and Throwing Shade on Alexander the Great.

A heart lighter than a feather.
Literacy – Reading the 42 Negative Confessions.